

Consult Australia Membership Associate / Affiliate

Who is eligible?

Associate Membership is open to any firm or business that is engaged in work with the built and/or natural environment but DOES NOT provide consulting services. Examples of business types that would be eligible for Associate Membership include contractors, suppliers, recruitment firms, non-professional businesses, banks, universities, management consultants, research consultants, lawyers and IT consultants.

Affiliate Membership is open to Government Agencies and Authorities.

What does it cost?

Associate and Affiliate Membership are charged in three tiers based on full time equivalent staff numbers as below:

1 to 2 Staff	$700 (excluding GST)
3 to 99 staff	$2,000 (excluding GST)
100 or more staff	$5,000 (excluding GST)

Membership is annual from 1 July – 30 June and will be pro-rated for the first year from time of joining.

What do you get?

Associate and Affiliate Members receive member rate pricing for all services, products and events and can access the majority of membership services. They are however not entitled to submit entries for the annual Awards for Excellence, participate in benchmarking activities, vote at the Consult Australia AGM or hold a place on any Committees or Roundtables (State, Policy or Governance).

For enquiries regarding membership contact info@consultaustalia.com.au or call +61 2 8252 6700.

About Consult Australia

Consult Australia is the association representing the business interests of consulting firms operating in the built and natural environment. We specialise in helping businesses of all sizes to create a commercial platform from which they can operate successfully and sustainably while making the business side of running their business easier and less time consuming.

Our member firms' services include, but are not limited to: architecture, landscape architecture, engineering, planning, cost consulting (quantity surveyors), project management and environmental science.

By joining as an Associate Member of Consult Australia you have the opportunity to work with Consult Australia and our members. Membership of Consult Australia is corporate and as such the advantages of membership are open to all staff in the organisation. However, while all staff are welcome to access the advantages of membership, our main goal is to provide opportunities for representatives of your firm (from all levels, locations and disciplines) to engage with our members in the areas most critical to your business and where we can best assist you in achieving commercial success.
