Meet the Client – Office of Projects Victoria

Join the Chief Executive of OPV, Antony Damiani at an interactive session on the role of OPV and the planning and delivery of infrastructure projects.

Tony will address a wide range of topics relating to his and his organisation's role, including:

- OPV's Vision
- What success looks like in 5 years' time?
- Challenges in future works – Where can Consultant's make a contribution?

About Office of Projects Victoria

The Office of Projects Victoria (OPV) was established to oversee major infrastructure projects in Victoria. OPV seeks to improve the quality of advice available to the Victorian Government when developing and implementing new infrastructure projects. The key objective of OPV is to ensure the pipeline of Infrastructure projects is delivered on time, on budget and the intended benefits are realized. OPV will work closely with project delivery teams to provide advice and recommendations to improve project delivery and will facilitate the up-skilling of project management capability and skills across Government, while strengthening the project assurance regime in partnership with the Department of Treasury and Finance. The new Office of the Victorian Chief Engineer will be an integral part of OPV, improving the quality of advice available to Government.

About Tony...

Antony Damiani, is no stranger to the Victorian construction industry, with over 20 years' experience in the industry, holding varying managerial and project leadership roles and is now the inaugural CEO of Office of Projects Victoria. Highly regarded by his peers, Tony is a qualified civil engineer experienced in the delivery of major infrastructure involving road, rail and building facilities with experience in delivering finance, design, build and operate projects.

Key's to his leadership style are his passion, personal commitment and drive. He has a natural ability to make things happen, sets a clear vision and approaches on boarding of people through open communication, consistency in message, behaviour and dealings with others; whilst helping them to see and emotionally feel how things can be different.
