In 2022 Consult Australia is celebrating. The annual National Conference is to be convened over two days and it will be the industry event of the year. Incorporating Consult Australia's 70th birthday celebrations, a not to be missed exhibition and our annual awards announcements, this event will attract large numbers of participants. Be prepared for a packed two days featuring prominent speakers from industry and clients, as well as experts on issues concerning our industry. We have named this event OneConsult.

Along with an impressive two-day program, delegates will have ample networking opportunities during the event, with our exhibition enabling everyone to learn more about suppliers operating within the industry.

WHO WE ARE
