WHAT?

In 2022 Consult Australia is celebrating. The annual National Conference is to be convened over two days and it will be the industry event of the year. Incorporating Consult Australia's 70th birthday celebrations and our annual awards announcements, this event will attract large numbers of participants. Be prepared for a packed two days featuring prominent speakers from industry and clients, as well as experts on issues concerning our industry. We have named this event OneConsult.

Along with an impressive two-day program, delegates will have ample networking opportunities during the event, with our exhibition enabling everyone to learn more about suppliers operating within the industry.

WHO WE ARE

Consult Australia is the industry association that proudly represents small, medium, and large businesses in design, advisory, and engineering. Our members provide professional consulting solutions to individual consumers, private sector companies, and public sector government clients, local, state, territory and federal. From building design to advisory services on major infrastructure, our members work across Australia shaping, creating, and sustaining our built and natural environment.

By sponsoring OneConsult you will have the opportunity to connect with our members and industry, enabling many business opportunities.

WHY BE INVOLVED?

- ☞ Reach the largest gathering of businesses in design, advisory and engineering from all over Australia. With an estimated over 300 attendees, delegates are from a wide range of corporate, small-to-medium enterprises, government and not for profits, including Chief Executive Officers, General Managers, Finance Managers, Marketing and Communications Managers, Procurement Managers, Board Directors and, importantly, "decision makers".
- ☞ Create more leads in the two days of this event and exhibition than you could possibly in months. With the opportunity for in-person interaction, create new business partnerships and contacts as well as reconnect with existing clients and past associates.
- ☞ Being part of this event enables you to demonstrate to key decision makers the capabilities of your product, how your services work and the reason why companies should be working with yours.
- ☞ This will be the event of the year, delivering results for you, be sure not to miss out on this opportunity.
